Join us for an exciting two-day event providing a venue for practitioners to learn from each other and engage in dialogue regarding best practices in Early College High School.

Conference Strands based on the ECHS Blueprint including:
- Target Population
- Partnership Agreements
- Leadership Initiatives
- Curriculum and Support
- Academic Rigor and Readiness
- School Design

April 5-6, 2018
Day 1: 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Day 2: 8:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
Isla Grand Resort
500 Padre Blvd.
South Padre Island, TX 78597

Workshop # 67349
Online registration at www.esc1.net/staffdevelopment

Fee: $175 per participant
Includes access to the conference, conference meals and materials.

Who Should Attend:
- Teachers, District/Campus Administrators, and Counselors from Early College High Schools and Comprehensive High Schools who are interested in learning more about ECHS.
- IHE Partners
- Community/Business Partners

For additional information, contact:

Melissa Lopez, Director
Center for College, Career, and Life Readiness
Region One Education Service Center
(956) 984-6046 mlopez@esc1.net

Featured Speaker:
Dr. Sara Goldrick-Rab
is a Professor of Higher Education Policy & Sociology at Temple University, and Founder of the Wisconsin HOPE Lab, the nation’s only translational research laboratory seeking ways to make college more affordable.

Dr. Goldrick-Rab’s commitment to scholar-activism is evidenced by her broad profile of research and writing dissecting the intended and unintended consequences of the college-for-all movement in the United States.