Parental Involvement

- Parental Involvement is an integral part of all Title I programs, including the Migrant Education Program (MEP). The MEP supports parental involvement to more effectively help migrant children experience academic success. Parent Advisory Councils (PACs) empower parents to be advocates and supporters of the program because they have a personal stake in the program’s success.
Establishment of Migrant PACs

- The State MEP and its subgrantees must establish and consult with PACs in the planning and operation of a MEP regular year program.
  - Independent projects must establish a PAC.
  - The fiscal agent must establish an SSA-wide PAC from the respective districts in the Shared Services Arrangement.
Goal of a Migrant PAC

- To provide parents with knowledge and skills for problem solving and decision making; and
- To provide opportunities for parents to function in a variety of roles such as advisors, tutors, audience, school program supporters and advocates.
Requirements for Parental Involvement
Title I, Part C

Section 1304 of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act of 2001 requires that LEAs:

- Of one school year in duration to establish a migrant PAC; Section 1304(c)(3)
- Conduct parental involvement activities in a format and language understandable to parents; Section 1304(c)(3)(B)
- Provide the same parental involvement as outlined in Section 1118 of NCLB, unless extraordinary circumstances make such provision impractical. Section 1304(c)(3)(A)
Requirements for Parental Involvement
Title I, Part C (continued)

Section 1118 of NCLB requires that LEAs:

- Plan and implement their MEP with meaningful consultation with parents; Section 1118(a)(1)
- Develop with parents and distribute to parents a written parent involvement policy; Section 1118(a)(2)
- Involve parents in the implementation of the MEP in an organized, ongoing and timely way; Section 1118(c)
Requirements for Parental Involvement

- Develop a school-parent compact in order to share the responsibility for high student academic achievement; Section 1118(d)

- Build the capacity of parents and school staff for strong parental involvement; Section 1118(e) and

- Provide effective access to parental involvement activities. Section 1118(f)
