

The Student by Student Technology & Leadership Conference (SbySTech20) is a unique experience where sessions focusing on the use of technology in education and STEM will be presented by students for their fellow students. This will empower student presenters to be leaders of their own future in the areas of technology, STEM and innovation, as well as provide a platform for students to showcase technology and STEM best practices.

Wednesday, April 15, 2020

8:30 AM—2:45 PM

McAllen Convention Center

700 Convention Center Blvd., McAllen

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

March 13, 2020

Registration is done on a per campus basis. There is NO LIMIT.

To register, go to: www.esc1.net/sbys or

<http://bit.do/SbySTech20Registration>

$100 per 8th—12th grade student

($50 for MEGabyte districts)

Chaperones / Sponsors attend for FREE

NOW ACCEPTING STUDENT PROPOSALS

We are now accepting 9th—12th student 25-minute session presentation proposals and

NEW THIS YEAR invention presentation proposals for SbySTech20.

The proposal form and further details can be found at <http://bit.do/SbySTech20Proposal> or on the Region One ESC website at www.esc1.net/sbys.

Accepted presenters attend for FREE.

DEADLINE: February 28, 2020

For event updates and highlights from previous SbySTech conferences, go to:

www.esc1.net/sbys

STEM Center of South Texas
Region One ESC

INSTRUCTIONAL
TECHNOLOGY
Region One Education Service Center

For more information, contact Sylvia Escobar at 956-984-6047 or

sescobar@esc1.net