

Student Attendance Daily Attendance (ADA) Type Comparison Chart

	Remote Conferencing	Local Remote Learning Program (SB 15)	Remote Instruction (non-VSN)	Homebound Attendance	Traditional Attendance
Enrollment Cap	No cap. However, if student receives more than 50% of their instructional days, they count towards the 10% cap → SB 15.	Up to 10% of LEA (DISTRICT) enrollment. Student enrolled for 1 day goes into the count.	No cap.	No cap.	No cap.
Timeframe	2021-2022 (currently) Temporary Learning Option (Cannot exceed 20 days without a waiver for student)	2021-2022 (currently) Can be used for temporary or long-term remote learning	2021-2022 (currently)	2021-2022 and beyond	2021-2022 and beyond
PEIMS Coding & Eligibility	ADA Codes 1-6, Funded. Must see 'on' camera at OAT for attendance.	ADA Codes 1-6, Funded.	9 ADA Code, No ADA Funding. Other funding.	ADA Codes 1-8	ADA Codes 1-8
LEA Eligibility	Students with a doctor note for temporary medical condition and must be confined to home/hospital. Includes quarantine and illnesses listed in TAC §97.7	Only to those with C or Higher Performance Rating	Open to all.	Open to all to students with a doctor note for illness lasting > 4 weeks.	Open to all.
Mode of Instruction	Remote Synchronous for 2 hours of 4-hour day for PK-5 and 4 hours per day for 6-12.	Remote (Synchronous, Asynchronous, and Combination) .PK not eligible	Remote (Synchronous, Asynchronous, and Combination)	In-person	In-person

Resources

- Student Attendance Accounting Handbook (SAAH)
- Texas Education Data Standards (TEDS)
- Financial Accountability System Resource Guide (FASRG)
- *NEW TAA GE Homebound 8/19/2021
- *NEW TAA Remote Learning 9/9/2021
- *NEW TEA Remote Instruction 8/5/2021
- *NEW TAA Remote Conferencing FAQs