STUDENT DISABILITY SERVICES

Student Disability Services (SDS) provides reasonable accommodations for STC students with documented disabilities. SDS supports the intent and spirit of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act.

WHO IS A QUALIFIED PERSON WITH A DISABILITY?

A person is considered disabled if they have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities such as: caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working OR has a record or history of having such an impairment; OR is perceived by others as having such an impairment.

HOW DOES A STUDENT WITH A DISABILITY ASSERT THEIR RIGHTS IN COLLEGE?

The student has the responsibility to disclose the disability; provide supporting professional documentation and request specific accommodations.

HOW DOES A STUDENT REQUEST SDS SERVICES AT STC?

- 1) Apply and be accepted to South Texas College. Students with disabilities must go through the standard admissions process.
- 2) Apply to the office Counseling and Student Disability Services at the college to self-identify and request classroom accommodations.
- 3) Provide documentation of a disability.
- 4) Intake Interview for classroom accommodations.

WHAT ABOUT DOCUMENTATION?

A student is responsible for providing current documentation. Documentation must not be older than three (3) years. The documentation must be on an official letterhead with an address, phone/fax, and name of the evaluator with professional credentials and date of evaluation. ARD's, IEP's, 504's and Transitional Plan's provide helpful information, however, are not sufficient documentation. The documentation should address diagnosis, prognosis, functional limitations, and educational recommendations.

HOW DOES A STUDENT RECEIVE ONGOING STUDENT DISABILITY SERVICES?

Students are required to notify a Counselor at the campus the student is going to attend several weeks before the beginning of each semester in order to receive accommodations on a timely basis. Student Disability Services must be requested every semester. Accommodations are not retroactive.
