

REGION ONE ESC TEACHER INCENTIVE ALLOTMENT

TIA Cohort D Data Academy: Full Local Designation System Approval

The Center for Excellence in Educator Effectiveness (CE3) will provide a three-day data academy for all Cohort D districts to support district data submission of teacher effectiveness to Texas Tech University (TTU) that will ensure the relative accuracy and reliability of eligible teaching assignments. District TIA leadership teams will analyze teacher observation and student growth data and run through 10 validation checks and one supplemental check to determine designations. The three day academy will provide two days of face-to-face professional development training and one day of customized on-site support for each participating district.
